FROM THE RECTOR

Naming Rights:
St. Luke and St. Luke’s Church

Anyone who pays attention to professional sports knows something about naming rights. Naming rights are a form of advertising where a corporation or other entity purchases the right to name a facility – like a stadium or ballpark – or an event for a defined period of time. The practice of naming a venue for a business goes back at least to 1912 when the ballpark in Boston was named “Fenway Park.” The stadium’s owner had owned a realty company called Fenway Realty. That was the start of things. In the last couple of decades, paying enormous sums of money in exchange for the rights to put a name on the homes of major league teams has resulted in the following (just a sample!):

- Air Canada Centre, Toronto – home of the Toronto Maple Leafs and Raptors
- Ameriquest Field – home of the Texas Rangers
- Great American Ballpark – home of the Cincinnati Reds
- Heinz Field – home of the Pittsburgh Steelers
- Miller Park – home of the Milwaukee Brewers
- Nationwide Area – home of the Columbus Blue Jackets
- Safeco Field – home of the Seattle Mariners

Sports fans – you can add others to the list!

Churches don’t sell naming rights, although maybe we should. Churches – at least Episcopal Churches – are typically named after some significant event in the life of Christ (there are Churches of the Ascension, Churches of the Transfiguration, and any number of parishes named simply Christ Church) or are named for one of the saints. Back in 1827, this parish was named after St. Luke, one of the four evangelists (or Gospel writers). As we move toward our annual celebration of St. Luke’s Day – this year on Sunday, October 19 – I’ve been asking myself what difference does it make that we’re named after this particular person? And who was he, anyway?

One of the reasons I’ve asked myself the question comes from a sentence from an email Bishop Breidenthal sent me after spending the morning here on September 7. He wrote that it was “so heartening to see a parish making all the right decisions.” It was encouraging to have the perspective of someone from “outside” St. Luke’s – someone who is in a lot of different churches as he makes his round of visitations. And it made me wonder where we find the guidance and inspiration to make “all the right decisions.” If you put any stock in the role of a patron saint, then maybe our having St. Luke as our patron provides one explanation.

G.B. Caird, the English Biblical scholar, writes this about Luke in his introduction to his commentary on the gospel that bears his name:

He was a second generation Christian who had had ample opportunities of associating with those who had first-hand knowledge of the Gospel story. He was an educated man who could adopt his Greek diction to different occasions, writing sometimes formal, classical prose, sometimes a racy narrative style in the vernacular of his own day...he was one of those Gentiles who were deeply versed in the Old Testament and in the ways of the synagogue. He had something of the poet in his make-up and an artist’s ability to depict in vivid pen-portraits the men and women who inhabit his pages. He delighted in marvels and was a little inclined to emphasize the miraculous element in his story. He was more interested in people than in ideas. He had a lively social conscience and an inexhaustible sympathy for other people’s troubles. (Emphasis mine.)

Luke’s interest in knowing “the story” – both the Gospel story and the stories of our spiritual forebears, the Jews – is certainly part of our life in this parish. Our love of language – and the range of it, from formal to racy – turns up frequently in what we write and what gets said. We delight in marvels, although we tend to downplay our part in making marvels like the Turkey Trot or the Market Street Pantry happen. We are more interested in people than in ideas – which is saying a lot, because there is great interest in ideas at St. Luke’s.

But most of all is our lively “social conscience and... inexhaustible sympathy for other people’s troubles” – that is WE CARE – about the homeless and hungry, about each other, about helping to alleviate the pain, sorrow, and suffering that is part and parcel of living in a sinful and broken world.

In this issue of The Good News you’ll find evidence of Luke’s patronage – in the classes and programs being offered, in the CROP Walk we’ll do on the afternoon of St. Luke’s Day to help feed the hungry of our world and our community, in the marvels and miracles that offer us delight and encouragement.

I give thanks for Luke and I pray in the words of the Collect for his day that God would “graciously continue in [this] Church this love and power to heal…”

Blessings,
Stephen Applegate
Step Up to Help End Local and World Hunger

St. Luke’s will join community churches in Newark for the annual CROP Hunger Walk. Walkers will gather pledges and participate in a 5K walk from OSU-Newark to the YMCA and back. The CROP Walk is Sunday, October 19, at 1:30 pm. 25% of what we raise will go directly to the Food Pantry Network of Licking County. 75% will be used by Church World Services to fight global hunger.

Consider this…hungry people in developing countries typically walk as much as six miles a day to get food, water, and fuel and to take their goods to market. Let’s walk a 5K in solidarity with their struggle for existence.

$1,800 will make this kind of difference: $80 provides emergency food supplies for a family of five for a month; $120 enables three women to attend a literacy class for a year; $200 provides a struggling family with a water buffalo to increase food production and carry more food to market; $350 enables the eldest in a child-led household of AIDS orphans to receive vocational training so they can support their siblings; and $1,050 supports community-based health, hygiene, and sanitation training for an entire community.

This first year, our goal is to recruit 20 walkers to raise $2,400; $1,800 of that will go global to help hungry families and $600 will put more food on the shelves in Licking County food pantries. Join us…volunteer to walk, give us a check, or do both. Our coordinator, Vicki Reed, will be available after all services on September 28 to answer questions and recruit walkers. Reach out to her at victoria.reed299@gmail.com.

"Going the Extra Mile"

The Cambridge Dictionary of American Idioms defines “Going the Extra Mile” as “To Do More” and “To Make a Greater Effort” and “To Do Things Right.”

As our Market Street Pantry program has grown and evolved over these last several months, the passion and commitment of its volunteers has also grown and is very contagious. Examples of going the extra mile are plentiful, such as Sheila McGrath working overtime to manage the schedule, recruit additional volunteers and buy more food and Deven Rittenhouse requesting on Facebook for her Friends to donate peanut butter. The donations totaled an impressive 80 jars but this was below Deven’s standards. She added 20 more at her own expense to get the total up to 100 jars. Then there’s Susan Potter working many hours to manage the inventory and stocking shelves while simultaneously helping with the clients.

There are many other extra milers in our ranks. Whenever we ask for one additional volunteer for a task, two or three step forward.

Speaking of additional volunteers, we need someone to take cardboard from the pantry to a nearby recycling location once or twice a week. Please contact Sheila McGrath at 740-398-4927.

NEWBORNS IN NEED

We are accepting donations of new sleepers or sleep sacks – newborn thru six months – for Newborns in Need! Drop them at the Parish House and Janet White will get them delivered. Questions? Contact Janet at missjanetlee317@gmail.com
Lay Pastoral Care Ministry Focus Group

How do we as St. Luke’s parishioners maintain connections with our faithful members who no longer can attend church? How do we help alleviate the issues of isolation, loneliness, and boredom that plague many of those who are homebound? How do we best serve the infirm, the grieving, and the elderly members of the parish?

We have many talented people at St. Luke’s who have gifts to offer as we discuss a vision for lay pastoral care ministry here.

Please join Father Applegate and Deacon Mary in this important discussion. Contact deaconmary@icloud.com.

OR THIS CALL?

We invite the St. Luke’s Meal-a-Month ministry teams and anyone wanting to know more about this ministry to feed the homeless or anyone interested in joining a team in 2015 to the annual dessert meeting on Wednesday, November 12 at 7:00 pm in the Undercroft.

A Call for Musicians and Singers

Every 3rd Sunday of the month St. Lukes offers a forty-minute worship service to the residents of Kendal, a retirement community, located near Granville. The majority of people participating are senior citizens and unable to attend Sunday worship services at their church so we bring the St. Luke’s community to them.

Those attending this service love hearing people play instruments and/or sing. We are looking for people of any age and any level of talent who have gifts in these areas that would be willing to play or sing at one of these services.

Please consider this call to ministry by using your God-given gifts and come join us in our worship service at Kendal.

Contact Deacon Mary at deaconmary@icloud.com or 614-537-3972.

2014 GRANVILLE TURKEY TROT

5K fun RUN/WALK

THANKSGIVING MORNING, NOVEMBER 27
A great honor for St. Luke’s!

St. Luke’s has been awarded one of the 2014 Ohio Preservation Merit Awards. This honor is shared with Midstate Contractors (Doug Hooper) and NRC Engineering (Andy Halter), whose work made St. Luke’s Church one of the fifteen honorees this year!

Our Historic Preservation Committee deserves credit for putting together the submission, including the photographic documentation. Their efforts told our story and brought the work done on our church building to life as… “an absolutely amazing project!”

Preservation Merit Awards are given for significant Ohio pre-historic, historical, architectural and cultural sites. The award will be presented on Saturday, October 18, at the Ohio History Center.

The idea to submit our project originally came from committee member Hedda von Goeben. Every member of the committee contributed to the project. Bill Hanes and Peggy Corrigan put together the photographic presentation.
Coffee: Grounds for Discussion
Sundays from 10:00 am – 10:45 am, Undercroft

October 5
COLLAPSE: HOW SOCIETIES CHOOSE TO FAIL OR SUCCEED BY JARED DIAMOND
Jack Bowers

While the biblical ‘age of prophecy’ was declared dead by the Jewish rabbis as of the close of the 8th century B.C., prophecy has lived on in the secular realm in such personalities as Jared Diamond. In his book, Collapse, Diamond lays out the pattern he discerns in the fall of great (and small) societies. Jack will reflect on those patterns and describe the parallels he sees in contemporary American culture.

October 12
REFLECTIONS ON EDUCATION
Terry Applegate and Sally McClaskey

As educators, Terry and Sally have a wide range of experiences in working with children and young adults. In this presentation they’ll share personal insights and stories from their work inside and outside the classroom and describe the rewards that inspire them to continue to dedicate their time and energies to education.

October 19
AN AMERICAN STUDENT ABROAD
Benjamin Applegate

Sponsored by the Rotary Club of Granville, Ben spent his junior year of high school living in Belgium and traveling in Europe. He’ll share moments from that year abroad and describe the cultural adjustments he experienced on both “ends” of his trip: arriving in Europe and returning to life in Granville, Ohio.

October 26
WORKING WITH A SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR
Debbie Brenneman

Debbie is a Spiritual Director and Retreat Facilitator in both Columbus and Fremont, Ohio. Her presentation will give you insight into what it means to work with a spiritual director and what outcomes you might expect from the experience. She’ll also summarize the experiences of some of the women and men whom she has companioned.

ST. LUKE’S AT LARGE
Saturday, October 18, 12:55 pm, Marcus Cinemas, Pickerington

Would you like to attend a ‘live’ performance at the Metropolitan Opera in New York City minus the travel? You can do so on October 18th when the Met will broadcast Mozart’s The Marriage of Figaro live in HD to theaters around the world.

For more details, see (http://www.metopera.org/metopera/liveinhd/LiveinHD.aspx?nav=top)
Tickets are $22.00 and may be purchased the day of the show at the cinema box office.

ST. LUKE’S BOOK CLUB
Tuesday, October 21, 7:00 pm, Undercroft

A Call to Action: Women, Religion, Violence, and Power by Jimmy Carter

A Call to Action addresses the suffering inflicted upon women by a false interpretation of carefully selected religious texts and a growing tolerance of violence and warfare. Key verses are often omitted or quoted out of context by male religious leaders to exalt the status of men and exclude women. And in nations that accept or even glorify violence, this perceived inequality becomes the basis for abuse. Copies of Carter’s book can be ordered from The Readers Garden. It isn’t necessary to have attended other sessions of the book club. If this title intrigues you, please join your fellow parishioners for lively conversation, wine, and savories.
Moses is the most significant figure in the Hebrew Scriptures. Born during the time when the people of Israel were living in slavery in Egypt, adopted by Pharaoh’s daughter, and reluctant leader of the Exodus, Moses is at the center of the story about the physical and spiritual birth of Israel as a nation. He performs almost every function attached to the various offices and vocations that were subsequently known in Israel (notable exceptions being priest and king!) In one of the most poignant moments in the Bible, Moses is given a glimpse of the Promised Land, but dies without entering it. The synoptic gospels all report his presence with the prophet Elijah at Jesus’ transfiguration.

During four consecutive Wednesday evenings, Father Applegate will cover the highlights of the drama which features enslavement and liberation, revelation and wandering, belief and apostasy.

Participants are not required to attend all four sessions but may come as often as able.

Handouts, including the scripture readings, will be available in hardcopy in the rear of the church starting on Sunday, October 5, or can be accessed electronically at St. Luke’s website: www.stlukesgranville.org.

Each evening will include lecture and discussion and will end with prayer. Refreshments will be provided. For more information, please contact Father Applegate at 587-0167 or rector_stlukes@windstream.net.

BRING YOUR OWN BRAIN

PRESENTS A LECTURE BY

DR. THOMAS WORTHAM
PROFESSOR EMERITUS OF ENGLISH AND AMERICAN LITERATURE AND CULTURE, UCLA

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2014, 7:00 PM
AT ST. LUKE’S CHURCH
107 EAST BROADWAY, GRANVILLE, OH FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

I Hear America Singing

“SHOW BOAT” AND RACIAL DISHARMONIES

Kern’s and Hammerstein’s 1927 adaptation of Edna Ferber’s 1926 Pulitzer Prize winning novel drew upon a long vernacular tradition in American music and radically changed the “Broadway musical.” This illustrated lecture (with music and film clips) looks at the impact of race upon American music, and ends with a celebration of James Whale’s 1936 adaptation of the musical play on film.

St. Luke’s BYOB (Bring Your Own Brain) Academy is a series of free public lectures sponsored by St. Luke’s Church, Granville. The idea behind the whimsical name is to suggest to our friends both in and outside our pews that one needn’t leave his or her brain (or sense of humor) at the door when one enters our church.
WE WELCOME …

Joshua Scott Whittington, Gwyneth Hope Whittington, Ellis Michael Whittington, Galen Andrew Kendrick, and Ingrid Brenda Kendrick into the household of God through the Sacrament of Holy Baptism.

Because both Josh Whittington and Galen Kendrick were baptized and anointed by Bishop Breidenthal on September 7, they also became confirmed members of the Episcopal Church. Joining them in their confirmation were Robin Lynn Whittington, Sophia Margaret Gelormo, Alexandra Janet Minton, Thomas Owen Scheetz, and Sophia Claire Tidwell.

Michelle Louise Bosse, Judith Ann Johnson, and Dorota Urszula Kendrick, were also received into the communion of the Episcopal Church.
At its September 10, 2014 meeting, the Vestry…

– elected Katy Zeanah to fill the unexpired vestry term of Mary Lucas-Miller. Katy’s term will expire February 7, 2016;

– received the following reports: Rector – Much of the time this past month was spent putting the finishing touches on the fall program. The bishop’s visit kicked things off, in a sense, but the two Sundays before were very well attended – and by completely different congregations. On August 24, the 10 o’clock service featured the Blessing of the Backpacks with lots of kids and young families, and then, on August 31, a more adult group filled the pews. One way to interpret what happened was to see how wide the worship needs are here at St. Luke’s and reinforced why we have different services with different worship styles. We’ve got a great fall line up of programs thanks to Wayne Piper, Mary Lucas Miller and others. And having Mary Raysa and John Johanssen helping is an enormous plus; Property, Building & Grounds – Before winter, Henry Zaborniak, Vestry liaison for Property, Building & Grounds, will arrange with Mark Moller, committee chair, to do an assessment of the Parish House with an eye to determining its condition and preparing a list of recommendations; Fellowship – It is hoped that we will continue the 11:00 coffee hour tradition during the upcoming program year – a sign-up sheet is posted in the Undercroft. It was suggested that a lunch be offered from time to time; Finance – unanimously approved the August 2014 Executive Summary Report as presented. It was noted that income is slightly behind projections and expenses (snow removal, insurance, music) are over budget; Membership – The first-year college student care package project is underway. A Sunday afternoon reception at the Daley home will be held in October for new members and potential members; Outreach – The Market Street Pantry is spending to keep its shelves stocked. The new Food Pantry warehouse will allow for more groceries being available to member pantries as will a more intentional effort to serve only those who are in the geographic service area designated for the pantry. St. Luke’s will participate in the annual CROP walk in Newark on October 19; Pastoral Care – Event planning is underway for a gathering at Kendal. Mary Raysa is participating in a meeting in Cincinnati on September 25, The Friendly Visitor; Stewardship – Discussion is beginning on the fall campaign; Worship – We will be continuing the third Sunday of the month service at Kendal during this program year. On November 23, St. Luke’s will host the Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service.

PARISH FAMILY NEWS

We give thanks for the life of Nancy Burdick, wife of the Reverend Ed Burdick, mother of Elizabeth and David, and we pray for God’s comfort for their families and friends.

Kudos to Simon Parini, son of Gregg & Alice, who was recently honored for achieving a perfect score on the 3rd grade math state assessment exam given last spring!

Congratulations to Sam Corrigan, son of Peggy and Kevin Corrigan, who has been identified as a National Merit Commended Scholar.

MEMBERSHIP

Welcome to St. Luke’s!

Galen and Dorota Kendrick and daughters, Ela (1st grade) and Ingrid (9 months) are our newest members. If the names sound familiar, Galen and Ingrid were baptized on September 7 (at the Bishop’s visitation) and Dorota was received into the Episcopal Church. Galen, earning a masters in teaching and combining that with his undergraduate degree from National University in music education & jazz performance, teaches music in the Licking Heights School District. Dorota, with an undergraduate degree in business from Franklin University and who is working on her masters at Ohio Dominican, is Assistant Director of International and Ohio Campus Programs at Ohio Wesleyan University. You can meet this very busy family at the 9:15 service!

“CARE ” Packages

Our 2014 High School graduates are off to college so it’s time for our Church family to remind these students that we are thinking about them. We will be collecting items through October 5 in the Undercroft. Hot chocolate, tea, popcorn, candy bars, granola bars, gum, etc. would be appreciated. Also, post-it notes, pens, pencils, highlighters, paper clips, and hand sanitizer. (Please, no soaps or shampoos.) If you would like to write a card/note of encouragement to an individual student, that, too, would be appreciated. The five students are: Erin Busalacchi, Megan Daley, Ryan Kauchak, Emma Wheeler and Alex Wilson.

MUSIC

Ushers and Refreshments Needed for Music Concerts at St. Luke’s

This program year there are nine musical events which take place at times other than Sunday mornings. For these, we need ushers and folks to set-up/serve refreshments afterwards. The first event is Scott Hayes’ recital on September 28 at 4:00 pm. If you would like to help, please see the sign-up sheet in the Pine Room of the Undercroft, or contact Scott Hayes at stlukesmusic@gmail.com, or 587-0167.

ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild is looking for additional members. If you are curious about and interested in performing a much-needed worship ministry, please consider joining. We ask for a once-a-month commitment, plus two or three working meetings per year.

Please contact Father Applegate, Michelann Scheetz or Sue Larimer for more information.

Blessing of the Animals
Saturday, October 4 at 10:00 am
Opera House Park

Calling all cats, dogs, pocket pets, farm animals or any other creature that slithers, crawls or creeps!

Join us for this tradition that honors St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of animals.
Father Applegate will lead a short service and all pets will receive a blessing.

Please have your pet(s) suitably restrained, leashed, or caged.

As an offering, and in thanksgiving for the joy of having a pet in your life, consider bringing a donation for a local animal shelter (paper towels, detergents, pet food, treats, kitty litter, toys, etc.).
